

AIESEC INDIA

COMPENDIUM

Sub-document

Election & Selection

Procedure

This Sub - document covers the minimums and guidelines for the election, regulation and impeachment of the Member Committee President and Local Committee President. It also provides the procedure for voting and the variations available for the same.

1. Member Committee President Elections

1.1. Elections to the posts of the MCP shall be held at the National Annual Elections Meeting..

1.2. In national plenary, Elections will only be held for the post of MCP .

1.3. Eligibility

1.3.1. To apply for Member Committee President, each applicant must be a voting member of AIESEC in India for a minimum period of two years or a current MC member of AIESEC in India.

1.3.2. Applicants must have a leadership experience comprising of either an Entity Head term or a Member Committee term or both. Applicant applying for the role must have had a role in AIESEC in the last two years from the date of National Annual Elections Meeting.

1.3.3. All applicants must obtain ethical clearance as part of their application process. To ensure compliance, each applicant is required to submit an ESC clearance certificate along with their application.

1.4. Nominations

1.4.1. All candidates must submit an application to AIESEC in India MC at least two weeks before the first day of the National Annual Elections Meeting to the MC.

1.4.2. All eligible candidates must submit three (3) endorsement letters from member Local Committees (LCs) of AIESEC in India and one (1) external endorsement letter as part of their application.

1.4.2.1 One of the endorsement letters must be issued by the candidate's home LC.

1.4.2.2 The external endorsement letter must be from a client or place of work where the candidate has previously engaged professionally or collaboratively.

1.4.3. All international candidates must submit endorsement letters as mentioned in application for the position of AIESEC India's MC.

1.4.4. All eligible Alumni candidates must submit three (3) endorsement letters from member Local Committees (LCs) of AIESEC in India , one (1) from the member committee of AIESEC in India and one (1) external endorsement letter as part of their application.

1.4.4.1 One of the endorsement letters must be issued by the candidate's home LC.

1.4.4.2 The external endorsement letter must be from a client or place of work where the candidate has previously engaged professionally or collaboratively.

1.4.5. The MC will send out all the applications and endorsement letters to the LCs within 48 hours after the deadline through e-mail and the global information system existing at the time for the purpose of communication.

1.4.6. The position of MCP is for an individual, therefore, no candidate can stand with a team.

1.4.7. Nominations for MCP, duly proposed and seconded by voting members, shall be submitted to the chairperson by the first plenary of National Annual Elections Meeting.

1.4.8. The deadline for withdrawal of nominations for MCP candidates is the opening plenary of the National Annual Elections Meeting.

1.4.9. The above nominations shall be taken up for approval at the plenary immediately after the expiry of the deadline for withdrawal of candidature.

1.5. Each candidate will participate in the election process at the National Annual Elections Meeting released with the application. The election officer is the MCP or someone who is nominated by the MCP.

Session 1: Each candidate will be participating in virtual Q&A with the Entity Head and Entity Head of all LCs'. The virtual QnA should be organized a maximum of 10 days before the National Annual Elections Meeting.

Session 2: Each candidate will give a 10-minute opening speech to the plenary. Immediately after all speeches, each candidate will participate in a question and answer (Q&A) session. The time for the speech, Q & A session as well as the time to answer each question shall be decided by AIESEC in India MC and shall be communicated to the candidates within 48 hours of the deadline of the application.

The MC will also decide any other session however the same has to be ratified by the Focus Commission of AIESEC India before releasing the process.

Session 3: There will be a 1-hour hard talk with all the candidates that will be facilitated by the chairperson of the election process or a person nominated by the chairperson of the election process and the MC of AIESEC India.

Session 4: Each candidate will participate in a LC cluster Q&A session. Each LC Cluster Q&A will have 20-35 minutes per candidate. There will be at maximum 6 LC's in each cluster Session 5: Each candidate will have a 5-minute closing speech in the plenary.

Session 6: Immediately after all the above sessions, ballot papers will be distributed and voting conducted.

The final call about the process is with the MCP provided it is ratified by the Focus commission. When a result is achieved for MCP, the Chair shall call all candidates before the general plenary and declare the result.

1.6. Announcing the Result

1.6.1. If no-result is achieved, then the chair should declare this without calling the candidates to the plenary room.

1.6.2. The Chair shall announce the vote distribution for all candidates to all the attendees of the National Annual Elections Meeting for each round of the counting.

1.6.3. Therefore, the secretary must record on a ballot paper the result at the end of each round of counting.

1.6.4. The Chair shall not declare if the MCP casting vote was used.

1.6.5. Instead, the Chair shall announce the winning candidate as having one vote more than the tied number of votes, and the losing candidate as having one vote less than the tied number of votes. For example, if the result is a 25 to 25 tie, the MCP vote will be used to break the tie. The Chair will announce the result as 26 to 24.

1.7. Vice President Nomination and Selection

1.7.1. The MC Vice President application & guidelines will be outlined by MCPe, MCPc, Selections Manager, if any; post NLS.

1.7.2. A candidate must have a minimum of 7 days to prepare and submit an application.

1.7.3. Each candidate is required to submit an application in the required format to AIESEC in India MC prior post the National Annual Elections Meeting as per the deadline set. The application should be accompanied by two endorsements, one from your own LC and the other from an external.

1.7.4. A selection committee comprising the MCP, MCPe and a third person (if so desired) will conduct interviews for the applicants during the MC selection process.

1.7.5. There will be a round of vote of confidence to confirm the candidates by the Focus Commission. Candidates need to have more than 50% of votes in favor to pass the vote of confidence. MC must release a form consisting of applicants' details asking for a vote of confidence within 72 hours of application deadline.

- 1.7.6. A feedback mail must be sent to all the applicants within 72 hours of the result announcement.

2. Member Committee President

- 2.1. The MCP shall hold office from the date of AIESEC India Budget Ratification at JNC till the date of AIESEC India Budget Discharge at JNC of the subsequent year.
- 2.2. The MCP cannot hold the same post continuously for more than two terms.
- 2.3. The Member Committee President will cease to hold office:
- 2.3.1. By their death
 - 2.3.2. By their resignation
 - 2.3.3. Impeachment
 - 2.3.4. Because he/she/they applies for a temporary moratorium
 - 2.3.5. By the appointment of a guardian over them by the court
 - 2.3.6. Removal from office by the court in the cases provided for in the law
 - 2.3.7. At the end of his/her/their term

2.4. MCP Impeachment

2.4.1. To impeach an MCP, the proposer must send a formal mail to LSc to request for initiation of the process of impeachment

2.4.1.1. Proposer is an AIESEC India Entity which is a Voting Member of AIESEC India who wants to initiate the process of impeachment of the MCP.

2.4.2. The Secunder should also be an AIESEC India Entity which is a Voting Member of AIESEC India. Secunder's details should be mentioned in mail and they should be CC'ed to the mail. The process of impeachment cannot be initiated without the motion having a secunder.

2.4.3. Post formal request being sent, LSc must send a mail to Focus and MC to check for the quorum. The MCP impeachment forum should be called by a quorum of 2/3rd majority of voting members. If the quorum is achieved, LSc shall initiate the process and appoint a chair as Chair for the Panel overseeing the Impeachment Process.

2.4.4. The Appointed Chairperson for the Impeachment Panel should be an Ex-MCP of AIESEC India. The MCP to be appointed cannot be anyone who held the position two years prior to the current MC Term. Any MCP to be appointed should have tenure done before that.

2.4.5. LSc should reach out to an Ex-MCP to Chair the Impeachment Panel and the Appointed Chairperson should be ratified by the Focus Commission

2.4.6. The Appointed Chairperson should assemble a panel within 7 days and follow the timeline mentioned:

2.4.6.1. The overall process of impeachment from the initiation till the conduction of the Impeachment Forum should take a maximum of 21 days.

2.4.6.2. Appointed Chairperson shall send out a mail a minimum of 16 days prior to AIESEC India entities sending the detailed timeline including the date of the Impeachment Forum.

2.4.6.3. The Appointed Chairperson shall send out a mail with a voting form for ratification of the panel members. The profile of the panel should be mentioned in the mailer. A simple majority will be followed for ratification.

2.4.6.4. The panel, post ratification, should investigate the case

by going through necessary proofs and conducting interviews.
2.4.7. Appointed Chairperson shall select the panel based on the recommendation of Focus and MC and serve as a chair for the same. The panel will include:

2.4.7.1. One past MCP of AIESEC in India

2.4.5.2. Two past Focus Members

2.4.8. The Panel report should have the following minimums:

2.4.8.1. The official request of impeachment sent to the LSc

2.4.8.2. The statistics of interviews conducted with all voting members of AIESEC India and more if necessary along with the Member Committee and the questions asked

2.4.8.3. A quantitative and qualitative coded analysis of the interviews and inspections

2.4.8.4. A set of inferences based on the analysis

2.4.9. The report cannot include any suggestions/conclusions to audience wrt whether voting for impeachment

2.4.10. The panel, through the interviews with the MC, should evaluate and select an MCVP, who in case the MCP gets impeached, will be taking the charge of the entity on a temporary basis.

2.4.11. The agenda of the Impeachment forum is as follows:

2.4.11.1. Opening Session

2.4.11.2. Attendance (Voting Members)

2.4.11.3. Report Presentation

2.4.11.4. Voting

2.4.11.5. Verdict announcement

2.4.11.6. MCVP Ratification (Subject to motion result)

2.4.12. The motion must have a majority of 2/3rd to pass

2.4.13. If the motion gets passed, the MCP will be discharged from their executive power effective immediately and the MCVP will take charge

3. Local Committee President Elections

3.1. The Entity Head or person(s) who will be discharging the duties of the Entity Head must call for an Annual Elections Meeting or AEM for the post of Entity Head.

3.1.1. AEM or Annual Elections Meeting is an official entity forum where all the voting members are invited along with non voting members (optional) and the candidate(s) for the position of Entity Head present their candidature in a detailed way which is followed by a voting process, which further leads to the election of one of those candidate(s).

3.1.2. The position of Entity Head is for an individual, therefore, no candidate(s) can stand with a team.

3.1.3. A chairperson and returning officer shall be appointed and ratified a minimum of 3 days before elections through a google form, which will be subsequently verified through AEM proofs check.

3.1.4. Annual Elections Meeting will be held for the post of Entity Head and SUP only.

3.1.5. The timeline to be followed by the Entity Head current for the process of AEM should be:

3.1.5.1. The date of the AEM should be announced to the members of the entity at least 14 days before the AEM via a mail to the entity.

3.1.5.2. The application booklet for the position of Entity Head must be released to the members of the entity a minimum of 11 days before the AEM.

3.1.5.3. All Entity Head candidates must be announced to the members of the entity along with their manifestos, 72 hours before commencement of the AEM.

3.1.5.4. The Entity Head Elect must be ratified in the entities within 24 hours of the AEM.

- 3.1.5.5. No alumnus/past members of AIESEC should be allowed to attend the AEM (Till voting process is completed) or interact with the candidates during AEM.

3.2 Eligibility

3.2.1 All Entity Head candidates should have been voting members of their LC for a minimum period of one year. The Member Committee reserves the right to allow a candidate not meeting the above criteria to apply in an extraordinary scenario.

3.2.2 All Entity Head candidates should be voting members of the LC at the time of application.

3.2.3. All applicants must obtain ethical clearance as part of their application process. To ensure compliance, each applicant is required to submit an ESC clearance certificate along with their application.

3.3 Roles & Responsibilities

3.3.1. Entity Head

- 3.3.1.1. Follow the timeline of conducting AEM from beginning to the closing
- 3.3.1.2. Ensure the deadlines for Entity Head candidate applications are being followed
- 3.3.1.3 Ensure the members of the entity are aware about the regulations of the AEM process
- 3.3.1.4 To formulate the isolation regulations for the candidates
- 3.3.1.5 Release the list of full members eligible for voting in the AEM.
- 3.3.1.6 Announce the Election Manager(s) for the AEM (Optional)
- 3.3.1.7. Distribute the manifestos of the candidates to the members along with the announcement of their candidatures.
- 3.3.1.8. Ensure the following agenda elements are being followed in AEM:
 - 3.3.1.8.1. Opening
 - 3.3.1.8.2. Core/Plan Presentation
 - 3.3.1.8.3. Hard Talk
 - 3.3.1.8.3.1 A hard talk is a session where the Chair facilitates a discussion amongst the candidates in front of the members of the entity to evaluate their perspectives on various relevant topics. The topic must be given to the candidates 15 minutes before the commencement of hard talk.
 - 3.3.1.8.4. Closing
- 3.3.1.9. Announce the results and propose the the ratification motion for the election of the candidate

3.3.2. Chair

- 3.3.2.1 To set up a call with the MC responsible to understand the guidelines and regulations for the AEM
- 3.3.2.1 Provide support to the candidates during the entire process of AEM
- 3.3.2.2 Facilitate the entire forum of AEM along with the Entity Head current
- 3.3.2.3 Moderate hard talk
- 3.3.2.4 Be present when the Returning officer is counting the votes
- 3.3.2.5 Present the motion for ratification of Entity Head elect
- 3.3.2.6 Take the casting vote from the Entity Head current
- 3.3.2.7 Announce the result to the Entity Head current in private

3.3.3. Returning Officer

- 3.3.3.1 To set up a call with the MC responsible in coordination with Chairperson to understand the guidelines and regulations for the AEM
- 3.3.3.2 Count the votes under the present of the Chairperson

3.3.4. Candidates

3.3.4.1 To adhere to the rules and regulations defined by AIESEC in India and well as Entity Head Current

3.3.4.2 To be inclusive while presenting themselves through various sessions of the day

3.3.5. Voting Members

3.3.5.1. To contribute in the voting process for the AEM by ensuring to understand each applicant's candidature.

3.3.5.2 Ask relevant questions during the plan presentation and hard talk

3.3 Candidate Withdrawal Process

3.3.1 Candidates for Entity Head elections can withdraw their application any time before 24 hours of the Annual Elections Meeting by submitting it in writing to the Entity Head and CC Chair.

3.3.2 The above application shall be considered valid on expiry of the deadline of withdrawal of applicant's candidature.

3.3.2 An applicant cannot cancel the withdrawal post sending the mail to the Entity Head about the same.

4. Voting Procedure for Elections

4.1. General Voting Procedure:

4.1.1. Each voter shall have three options while casting their vote in MCP or LCP elections:

4.1.1.1. Preference order (Numerical): Each voting member may rank the candidates in ascending numerical order based on their preference for the role.

4.1.1.2 Abstain (A): A voting member may choose to abstain from ranking a candidate if they do not have sufficient understanding or are not in a position to evaluate the candidate.

4.1.1.3 No Confidence (N): A voting member may select "No Confidence" for a candidate if they do not deem the candidate suitable for the role.

4.1.2. All candidates' names shall be listed in alphabetical order.

4.2. Member Committee President(MCP) Election Voting Procedure:

4.2.1. All Local Committees (LCs) of AIESEC in India may be granted voting rights during MCP Elections, provided they meet all of the following eligibility criteria:

4.2.1.1 Clearing MNC MSc Check and NPC MSc Check.

4.2.1.2 Physical representation in at least 2 out of the 4 National Legislative Meetings (MNC NLM, JNC NLM, NPC NLM, and NLS NLM) in the term. Proxies will not be counted.

4.2.1.3 The entity must hold the status of a Local Committee (LC); Start Ups (SUs) are not eligible for voting rights.

4.2.2. Each Full Member shall be granted one additional vote specifically for the purpose of the MCP elections.

4.2.3. The National Annual Election Meeting must meet a quorum of two-thirds (2/3rd) of the total voting entities. If the quorum is not reached, the Chairperson of Elections shall adjourn and reschedule the meeting.

4.2.4. Proxy voting shall not be permitted under any circumstances. In case of absence, the vote of that entity or member shall not be counted.

4.3. Local Committee President(LCP) Election Voting Procedure:

4.3.1. Only the Voting Members of the respective Local Committee shall vote in the LCP elections.

4.3.2. The Local Committee's Active Election Meeting (AEM) must meet a quorum of two-thirds (2/3rd) of its Voting Members. If the quorum is not met, the Chairperson shall call off the meeting.

4.3.3. No proxy votes shall be accepted in case of absence of any voting members of the Local Committee.

5. Mode of Voting

5.1. Member Committee President(MCP) Elections:

5.1.1. MCP Elections shall be conducted exclusively through Ballot Paper voting.

5.1.2. Ballot Paper Voting Procedure:

5.1.2.1. A ballot box shall be arranged, and each voting member/entity shall cast their vote on a ballot paper distributed by the Chairperson and Returning Officer.

5.1.2.2 The ballot paper shall contain the names of candidates in alphabetical order, with a space/box beside each name.

5.1.2.3 Voting members shall mark their choice using one of the options defined under Clause 4.1. (Preference Number, Abstain 'A', No Confidence 'N').

5.1.3. Elimination of Ballot Paper:

5.1.3.1. A completely blank ballot paper shall be counted as an abstention.

5.1.3.2. Any box marked with a number higher than the total number of candidates shall be treated as abstention for those candidates.

5.1.3.3. If certain candidate boxes are left blank, those shall be counted as abstentions for those candidates.

5.1.3.4. Any ballot paper without the initials of the Chairperson shall be counted as an abstention.

5.1.3.5. If candidates are not numbered in consecutive order, blank boxes shall be abstentions, and valid numbers shall be considered in order of preference.

5.1.3.6. If two candidates are assigned the same number, the ballot is valid up to the last correct number. If redistribution leads either of those candidates to become the preferred option, the vote is considered an abstention for that candidate.

5.1.4. The Returning Officer shall compile and arrange all valid ballot papers in the standardized counting format.

	Candidate A	Candidate B	Candidate C
Voter 1	1	2	3
Voter 2	A	2	1
Voter 3	1	3	2
Voter 4	N	1	1
Voter 5	2	1	2
Voter 6	1	3	2
Voter 7	1	A	N
Voter 8	2	3	1
Voter 9	3	1	2
Voter 10	3	2	A
Voter 11	2	1	3

5.2. Local Committee President(LCP) Elections:

5.2.1. LCP Elections shall be conducted exclusively through Google Form voting.

5.2.2. Google Form Voting Procedure:

5.2.2.1. A voting form shall be created by the Chairperson after ratification and before the Annual Elections Meeting (AEM).

5.2.2.2 The form must be shared with the Voting Responsibles of AIESEC in India MC at least 48 hours prior to the AEM.

5.2.2.3 Only the following individuals may access the form backend and response sheet, Chairperson, Returning Officer, MCVP OD and MC member appointed by the MCP.

5.2.3. Structure of Voting Form:

5.2.3.1. Each candidate must appear as a separate question with a dropdown menu containing the voting options defined in Clause 4.1 (Preference, Abstain 'A', No Confidence 'N').

5.2.3.2. The form must not request any personal or identifiable information of the voter.

5.2.4. Voting Process during AEM:

5.2.4.1. The Chairperson's laptop must be placed at a distance from the audience to ensure confidentiality.

5.2.4.2. Each voting member shall be called individually by the Returning Officer to cast their vote.

5.1.4.3. After every vote submission, the Returning Officer must verify that the response has been recorded in the backend.

5.1.3.6. If two candidates are assigned the same number, the ballot is valid up to the last correct number. If redistribution leads either of those candidates to become the preferred option, the vote is considered an abstention for that candidate.

5.2.5. The backend response sheet shall not be generated or opened until all votes have been submitted.

4.3 Vote Counts

4.3.1 The method of voting to be followed at AEM is preferential.

4.3.1.1 Preferential voting follows a process where candidates are eliminated to reach to a scenario where one candidate has more than 50% of the votes.

In case, there are only 2 candidates for the position of Entity Head, then a voting with simple majority will be followed.

4.3.2 If there are more than 2 candidates and 1 candidate is having majority in preference 1 of voting, then that candidate will be declared the winner.

4.3.3. If 4.3.2 is not valid, then the candidate with the least votes will be eliminated and their votes shall be distributed amongst the other candidates based on the second preference of the respective votes.

4.3.4. The process mentioned in 4.3.2 is repeated till a candidate reaches a simple majority.

4.4 Announcing the Result

4.4.1 Results are to be announced without announcing the vote count.

4.4.2 As soon as a person is announced as an Entity Head, they will be ratified as the Entity Head elect by the chair of elections.

4.4.3 In case of a tie the Entity Head has a casting vote in the Entity Head elections.

4.4.3.1 A casting vote is an additional vote given by the Entity Head in case there is a tie.

4.4.4 The mode of voting to be used in Entity Head elections is preferential.

4.4.5 The casting vote of the Entity Head should be asked by the Chairperson and duly submitted to the Chairperson before the voting commences.

4.4.6 Counting of votes shall be done by the Returning Officer in the presence of the Chairperson. The final tally shall not be disclosed.

4.4.7 In case there are no nominations or candidates are defeated for the posts, Entity Head elections shall be called within a maximum period of one month.

5. Local Committee President

5.1 The Entity Head shall hold office from the date of The Entity Budget Ratification at Annual General Meeting till the date of The Entity Budget Discharge at Annual General Meeting of the subsequent year.

5.2 The Entity Head cannot hold the same post continuously for more than two terms.

5.3 The Local Committee President will cease to hold office:

5.3.1 By his/her death

5.3.2 By his/her resignation

5.3.3 Impeachment

5.3.4 Because he/she applies for a temporary moratorium

5.3.5 By the appointment of a guardian over him/her by the court

5.3.6 removal from office by the court in the cases provided for in the law

5.3.7 At the end of his/her term

5.3.7.1 If the office of the Entity Head becomes vacant by reason of death, the LCVP FnL or LC Coach shall assume the duties of the Entity Head for a period of one (1) month, within which time elections must be called to appoint a new Entity Head and If the Entity Head resigns, is terminated or is removed by a no-confidence motion, the LCVP FnL or LC Coach shall likewise assume the duties of the Entity Head until a new Entity Head is duly elected.

5.4 Impeachment

5.4.1 To impeach an Entity Head, the proposer has to have a consultancy with the MCVP OD and/or MCP before taking any step for the impeachment process.

5.4.1.1 Proposer is an individual who is a member of a particular Local Committee and wants to initiate the process of impeachment of the Entity Head.

5.4.2 Post consultancy, the proposer must send a mail to the MCP requesting to initiate the process of Impeachment. The seconder's details should be mentioned in mail and they should be CC'ed to the mail.

5.4.2.1 The process of impeachment cannot be initiated without the motion having a seconder.

5.4.3 Post formal request being sent, MCP must send a mail to full members of the entity to check for the quorum. The Entity Head impeachment forum should be called by a quorum of 2/3rd majority of full members. If the quorum is achieved, MCP shall assemble a panel within 7 days and follow the timeline mentioned:

5.4.3.1 The overall process of impeachment from the initiation till the conduction of the Impeachment Forum should take a maximum of 21 days.

5.4.3.2 MCP shall send out a mail a minimum of 14 days prior to the respective entity sending the detailed timeline including the date of the Impeachment Forum.

5.4.3.3. MCP shall send out a mail with a voting form for ratification of the panel members. The profile of the panel should be mentioned in the mailer. A simple majority will be followed for ratification.

5.4.3.3 The panel, post ratification, should investigate the case by going through necessary proofs and conducting interviews.

5.4.4. MCP shall select the panel and serve as a chair for the same. The panel will include:

5.4.4.1. A current Focus member

5.4.4.2. An LC Alumni from the respective LC

5.4.4.3. An AIESEC in India Alumni

5.4.5. The Panel report should have the following minimums:

5.4.5.1. The official request of impeachment sent to the MCP

5.4.5.2. The statistics of interviews conducted and questions asked

5.4.5.3. A quantitative and qualitative coded analysis of the interviews and inspections

5.4.5.4. A set of inferences based on the analysis

5.4.6. The report cannot include any suggestions/conclusions to audience wrt whether voting for impeachment

5.4.7. The panel, through the interviews with EB should evaluate and select an EVP, who in case the Entity Head gets impeached, will be taking the charge of the LC on a temporary basis.

5.4.7. The agenda of the Impeachment forum is as follows:

5.4.7.1. Opening Session

5.4.7.2. Attendance (Voting Members)

5.4.7.3. Report Presentation

5.4.7.4. Voting

5.4.7.8. Verdict announcement

5.4.7.9. EVP Ratification (Subject to motion result)

5.4.7. The motion must have a majority of 2/3rd to pass

5.4.8. If the motion gets passed, the Entity Head will be discharged from their duty effective immediately and the EVP will take charge.

5.5 Executive Body

5.5.1 The members of the Executive Board (EB) of the Local Committee shall be appointed by the Entity Head.

5.5.2 The term of the EB members, except for the Local Committee President Elect (LCPe), shall coincide with the term of the Entity Head.

5.5.3 Any EB member may resign from their position by submitting a written resignation to the Entity Head. In the case of the Entity Head's resignation, the resignation shall be submitted to the MCP, MCVP OD, Entity Coach and the Executive Body. Non-acceptance of such resignation by the EB shall carry the same implications as non-fulfillment of responsibilities in the respective role. At the time of resignation, the member must provide proof of clearance of all financial obligations towards AIESEC.

5.5.4 An EB member shall cease to hold office upon the tendering of their resignation or upon removal by the Entity Head as per process mentioned in

Subdoc E_HR Policy

5.6 Members applying for the Member Committee

5.6.1 All members of the MC cease to be members of the LC from the date of their ratification.

5.6.2 Before being ratified on to the MC, the member has to be discharged from the LC.