ANTI SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY

A. INTRODUCTION

[Association Internationale des Étudiants en Sciences Économiques et Commerciales registered as Not for profit society under the Societies Registration Act, 1860] (“AIESEC”) believes that everyone must get equal opportunity to work, regardless of race, caste, religion, colour, ancestry, marital status, gender, sexual orientation, age, nationality, ethnic origin or disability. It believes that a safe and conducive work environment that enables all to work without fear of prejudice, gender bias and sexual harassment, where employer and employees respect each other’s integrity and dignity, their privacy, their right to equality and right to opportunity in the workplace, is created. It understands that equality in employment can be seriously impaired when individuals are subjected to discrimination by way of sexual harassment at workplace. Each such incident results not only in the violation of fundamental rights of “Gender Equality” and the “Right to Life and Liberty” under Articles 14, 15 and 21 of the Constitution of India but also in the violation of the victim’s fundamental right under Article 19 (1) (g) “to practice any profession or to carry out any occupation, trade or business”. The fundamental human rights to protection against sexual harassment and the right to work with dignity are also universally recognized by international conventions and instruments such as Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination against Women (“CEDAW”), which has been ratified on the 25th June, 1993 by the Government of India. Pursuant to the Constitutional provisions mentioned above and India’s commitment to the objectives of CEDAW, the Indian Parliament has enacted the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act and Rules, 2013 (‘the Law’) with the objective to provide protection against sexual harassment of women at workplace. AIESEC recognizes that the Law has been passed as a measure to provide equal opportunity to work to its women population and grant them equality under the Constitution of India. Thus, the procedure and the mechanism specified in Law has been provided keeping the women population in mind i.e. to prevent instances of sexual harassment of women at workplace and to have a complaints mechanism to address their complaints. However, as AIESEC also recognizes that genders other than women aren’t immune to sexual harassment as well and can experience such behaviours at the workplace.

AIESEC is committed to work and provide support towards provision of a safe and conducive environment at workplace for all its employees, regardless of gender. Additionally, it is committed to create an ethos of acceptance and inclusivity such that individuals regardless of their sexual orientation, sexual preferences, individuals belonging to LGBTQI community, individuals choosing to not be in any of the socially constructed communities and adopting a fluid/non-binary approach feel respected and accepted at the workplace. In light of the above, AIESEC has formulated this policy against sexual harassment at workplace (“Policy”) as per the Law and is also extending the same to other genders as part of its internal policy.

While the law is applicable to women employees only, as a healthy practice and as part of internal policies, AIESEC has extended the benefit of the law to not only its women employees, but also to its other employees who may belong to any gender. Thus, this Policy shall be applicable to all complaints of sexual harassment made by anyone against an employee of AIESEC in the context of work.
