Consequence: Failing to provide the agreed upon Job Description for any EP within 1 week of the arrival date gives the LC a maximum duration of 5 days to find the same JD or an alternative JD that has to be approved by the

EP GV and 7 days for GTa and GTe. Relevant proof stating that the delay might be at the Enabler's end, and not of AIESEC's, needs to be documented by the LC, failing to arrange which, will lead to a RE break, and APD of the EP to another LC, with a full refund of the EP fees that the EP might have paid. For exceptional circumstances that require shifting the EP in less than 72 hours' notice, an appropriate reason must be communicated to the EP, failing to provide which will lead to a RE break and APD of the EP with another LC.
