

AIESEC INDIA

COMPENDIUM

Sub-document

HR Policy

The AIESEC India Human Resource Policy document aims to clearly outline the principles and procedures related to the management of members in all kinds of roles, across all entities of AIESEC in India.

1. Introduction

1.1. Membership Criteria

- 1.1.1. An individual fulfilling the following criteria will be called a 'Member' of AIESEC in India
 - 1.1.2. They were/have been recruited into a entity of AIESEC through a Recruitment Drive (Summer/Winter/Pocket), or through Exchange Participant Re-integration Process
 - 1.1.3. They have signed the Membership Undertaking with the recruiting entity
 - 1.1.4. They are a part of a team in the entity
 - 1.1.5. They have a Job Role to fulfill in the entity

2. Recruitment, Selection and Onboarding

2.1. Recruitment Campaigns

- 2.1.1. In addition to aligning to the two major Recruitment Campaigns run nationally, entities can choose to run 'Pocket Recruitment Campaigns' in a case of HR deficit once approved by the MCVP PM.

2.2. Marketing Principles to be followed

- 2.2.1. All Individuals wanting to join AIESEC need to register through aiesec.in/joinaiesec or aiesec.in/join as the sole registration links for Recruitments.

2.3. Selection and Onboarding Principles to be followed

- 2.3.1. Any person between the age of 18 and 25 can be a part of the Selection process provided that they are either a student or a recent graduate.
 - 2.3.1.1 In an occurrence of breach of clause 2.3.1 the entity shall be flagged.
 - 2.3.1.2 In an occurrence of breach of clause 2.3.1 the membership of the specific individual shall be revoked and the member may be granted a free opportunity to participate in the next recruitment cycle, provided they meet the age requirements.
- 2.3.2. No entity member shall discriminate against any applicant on the basis of color, gender, sexual orientation, race, disabilities, religion, or ethnicity.
- 2.3.3. In case of rejection of an applicant, the entity shall give the applicant feedback, either through email, call, or physical meeting within 14 days from the day of induction.
- 2.3.4. Upon Selection, the applicant shall sign the Membership Undertaking with the Local entity within 14 days from the day of induction.
- 2.3.5 It is mandatory to have a Local Education Cycle plan for a member after their recruitment
- 2.3.6 Entities must obtain approval from the MCVP PM to conduct selection and onboarding of Managing Body (MB) members if they wish to do so after the national deadline/ in between the semester.
- 2.3.7 Entities, when creating aiesecmember.in IDs, are required to submit the necessary details via email to the MCVP PM for approval on EXPA. The MCVP PM must review and respond to the approval request within 72 hours of receiving the email.

3. Member Roles and Responsibilities

3.1. Every member of AIESEC India shall be aware of and abide by:

- 3.1.1. The AIESEC Way
- 3.1.2. The Leadership Development Model
- 3.1.3. Leadership Development Assessment (LDA)

3.2. Responsibilities in the entity

- 3.2.1. A member is liable to attend all official forums including AEM, AGM, Local Conferences, Entity Meetings of the entity.
- 3.2.2. In case of inability to attend an official forum, the member shall inform one or more Executive Body members about the same, at least 12 hours prior to the forum.
- 3.2.3. Inability of a member to attend 3 consecutive Official Entity Forums shall result in an immediate probation.
- 3.2.4. The member shall be present for all team and personal meetings with the team leader.

4. Full Member: Criteria and Role

4.1. Criteria for Full Membership

4.1.1. Any member fulfilling the following criteria shall be eligible for the Full Member status in their entity:

- 4.1.1.1. At least 6 months of experience in the entity and
- 4.1.1.2. No cases (ethics or otherwise) pending against them
- 4.1.1.3. The MCVP PM must ensure that the full membership Status is sent out to the PM Commission along with the Final PM Audits Results for the month.

4.1.2. The final decision, pertaining to the full membership of a member, shall rest in the hands of the Entity Head (in consensus with the EB) of that entity post an approval from the MCVP PM. The MCVP PM must be notified of the reasons that have helped derive the given conclusion in-order to seek the approval. If the MCVP PM fails to do so, the Entity Head can go ahead with what they have mentioned in the PM audits

4.2. Full Member Responsibilities

4.2.1. Full members have to be mandatorily present in the following forums to exercise Voting Rights:

- 4.2.1.1 Annual General Meeting
- 4.2.1.2. Annual Elections Meeting
- 4.2.1.3 Budget Ratification/Re-ratification process in the Local Chapter

5. Internal and Finance Policies

5.1. Every LC needs to have internal and financial policies drafted and sent to ESC by 20th January every year. The ESC needs to report back to the LC at least 3 days before the AGM with necessary changes and suggestions.

5.2 Upon confirmation from ESC about the internal and financial policies, the same needs to be presented at AGM and LTS. Proof of the same must be submitted to the ESC by 15th February and 15th August, corresponding to Semester 1 and Semester 2 respectively.

5.3 MC India needs to have internal policies and employment contract drafted and sent to ESC by 1st June every year. The ESC needs to report back to the MC within 7 days with necessary changes and suggestions.

5.4 The contents of the internal and financial policies must include:

- General Policies
- Financial Policies
- Office management
- Expansion Visits and external appointments/meetings
- Reimbursement policy
- Subsidy policy
- LC leaves and Holidays
- Data Minimisation Practices

5.4.1 The Internal Policies of any entity cannot have any clauses with respect to termination of the members and only follow the Exit Process mentioned in this subdocument only, for the same.

5.5. Any member failing to adhere to internal or financial policies is eligible to be placed on probation at the discretion of the entity head.

6. Exit Process

The exit process as detailed below has to be followed by all entities of AIESEC in India and no deviations from the same are permitted. On a local level, the Vice-President People Management (VP PM) and the Entity Head are in-charge of the same. At the MC level, the MCP will hold the corresponding responsibilities.

6.1. Probation

Probation is defined as the time period in which a member of the organisation is kept under observation and given tasks to complete, owing to reasons including but not limited to inactivity, under- or non-performance, etc.

6.1.1. The probation shall last over a period of 3-7 days, and may extend only with permission by the member's respective Vice President, or the LCVP PM. At the MC level, this extension requires permission from MCP.

6.1.2. The member on probation shall be given tasks that are attainable within the time period of probation (aligning to the productivity metric of AIESEC in India) to fulfill, by his/her respective Vice President. In case of an MC member being placed under probation, the tasks to be completed during the probation period shall be assigned only by the MCP.

6.1.3. A full member loses all the full member rights during the probation period.

6.1.4. Upon the completion of probation period, or the tasks, the Vice President shall review the same, and any of the following steps can be taken:

6.1.4.1. The member be asked to resume his/her role, with the Full members also getting back their Full Member rights

6.1.4.2. The member will be called for an Exit meeting, followed by exit from the entity. At the MC level, the review and decisions under 6.1.4 shall be undertaken by the MCP.

6.1.5. The probation needs to be issued formally on email. This can be done only by the LCVP PM or the Entity Head. At the MC level, this can only be done by the MCP.

6.1.6. A member can be put under probation more than once, upon the discretion of his/ her respective Vice President, who needs to communicate the same to the LCVP PM. At the MC level, this decision shall be taken by the respective MCP.

6.1.7. Any resignation by a member in the duration of the probation period, will count as a termination. Thus, all implications of termination will also apply, as mentioned in Clause 6.3.

6.2. Resignation

6.2.1. The procedure to be followed if a member needs/wishes to resign from the entity is as follows:

6.2.1.1. The member shall write an email to his/her team leader, respective Vice President and the Vice President People Management of the entity (or the MCP in case of the MC), explaining with sufficient details, the reason for the resignation

6.2.1.2. The member shall continue fulfilling duties towards the Entity until a response is received from the LCVP PM only (or the MCP in case of the MC).

6.2.1.3 Upon acceptance of resignation, the member should discharge their responsibilities towards the Entity within the given timeline till the Exit meeting is done.

6.2.1.3.1 The member should transfer all the AIESEC confidential data and information to the respective Vice-president and the LCVP PM (or the MCP in case of the MC), details/proof of which is to be shared on the same email thread . This includes all EP data, exchange contracts, client contracts, partner contracts, membership information and data and any other relevant data asked by the entity.

6.2.1.3.2 The member should hold no financial liability towards AIESEC and all reimbursements to the member should be cleared.

6.3. Termination

6.3.1. A member may be terminated from the entity in the following events:

6.3.1.1. Failure to fulfill the criteria laid down in the Probation period

6.3.1.2. Losing a case brought up with the Ethics Sub Committee of AIESEC India.

6.3.1.3. Involvement in any activity deemed illegal by the law of the land

6.3.1.4. Additional reasons that violate SubDoc B_Code of Ethics (polarizing membership, unethical behavior, verbal, non verbal misconduct)

6.3.2. The repercussions of termination will be as follows:

6.3.2.1. The member shall immediately cease to be a part of the entity

6.3.2.2. The member shall be terminated from all additional AIESEC roles. The entity head must ensure that the respective role supervisors are informed via mail.

6.3.2.3. The member shall not be provided an Endorsement/Experience Letter by the entity

6.3.2.4. The member shall not be eligible for the Alumnus Status of the entity

6.3.2.5. The member shall not be eligible to apply for membership roles in any other AIESEC chapter.

6.3.2.7. The member shall not be eligible to attend any AIESEC forum.

6.3.3. Termination of any member of the organisation to be considered valid only when they are notified about the same via email by either the VP PM or the Entity Head only, following the provided format. In case of MC, the termination must be communicated via email by the MCP only, following the same format:

Dear John Doe,

Further to our meeting on dd/mm/yyyy, I regretfully confirm that your membership at AIESEC in XYZ is terminated effective immediately. (or with effect from dd/mm/yyyy).

The reason(s) for termination is(are) as follows

1. Not completing the probation task (task needs to be mentioned along with the percentage of the task completed)
2. Performance related reasons (if applicable)
3. Any additional reasons (polarizing membership, unethical behaviour, verbal, non verbal misconduct)

Previous warnings

1. (emails, meetings, other relevant proofs etc)

Repercussions as stated in sub document E_HR Policy

- 6.3.2.1. The member shall immediately cease to be a part of the entity
- 6.3.2.2. The member shall also have to resign from all additional AIESEC roles that they hold.
- 6.3.2.3. The member shall not be provided an Endorsement/Experience Letter by the Entity
- 6.3.2.4. The member shall not be eligible for the Alumnus Status of the entity
- 6.3.2.5. The member shall not be eligible to apply for membership roles in any other AIESEC chapter.
- 6.3.2.6. The member shall not be eligible to apply for any product of AIESEC, in any entity or entities.

State of current receivables

Your receivables to the entity as of dd/mm/yyyy stands at Rs.(amount)/-

Right to appeal

You can exercise your right to appeal to the Ethics Sub-committee of AIESEC in India if you do not accept your Termination. esc@aiesec.in

Please respond to this email within 48 hours. Failing to do so confirms the waiver of your right to appeal.

We hope that you take this with the best of spirits and we wish you the very best for your future endeavors.

6.4. Finished Term Procedure

6.4.1 A member who has finished their term but is unable to complete the exit process may be formally released from their duties by the entity's LCVP PM or Entity Head.

7. Alumnus Status and Rights

7.1. Alumnus Status

7.1.1. A member shall be eligible for Alumnus Status from the entity in any of the following cases:

- 7.1.1.1. At Least 1 year of AIESEC Experience in the entity
- 7.1.1.2. Member should be marked as a complete

7.1.2. The Entity Head shall formally grant Alumnus Status to members who newly become eligible under Clause 7.1.1 through an official email. This process shall be completed within 30 days of the official conclusion of each semester (accordingly, all such emails must be sent by the end of February and by the end of August, respectively).

7.1.3. The final decision, whether a member will get alumnus status or not, should rest in the hands of the LCP (in consensus with the Executive Body) of that Local Chapter. The MCVPM must be notified of the same, as reflected in the PM Audits.

7.2. Alumnus Rights

7.2.1. An Alumnus of any entity of AIESEC India shall have the following rights:

7.2.1.1. Right to attend Alumni forums for AIESEC Alumni

7.2.1.2. Right to sign up for Exchange programs at subsidized costs, as per the entity's discretion

7.2.1.3. Right to avail all AIESEC International opportunities available for AIESEC Alumni

7.3. Revoking Alumnus Status

7.3.1. A member of AIESEC in India's alumnus status can be revoked only on ethical grounds as per the clauses mentioned in B_Code of Ethics.

7.3.2 In a scenario where the alumni status of an individual is to be revoked, the Entity Head (or the MCP in case of the MC) must send a mail to ESc. This mail needs to consist of the reasons as well as proof of unethical activity

7.3.3 Post the review of proofs provided and reasons given, ESc in consultation with the MCVPM (or the MCP in case of the MC) would send the verdict pertaining to the alumni status of the member. The verdict would be sent to the Entity Head (or the MCP in case of MC) and the concerned individual.

7.3.3.1. The verdict of alumnus status being revoked must be reported on the AIESEC in India Alumni Tracker.

7.3.4. Once alumni rights of a member have been formally revoked following due process, such revocation shall be deemed final. Any reinstatement shall not be permitted without a formal re-evaluation in accordance with prescribed governance procedures.

7.3.5. In cases where reconsideration of alumni rights is proposed by a subsequent LCP, a formal investigation must be conducted with documented evidence and justification. The final decision regarding the granting or denial of alumni rights shall rest solely with the Ethics Sub-Committee (ESc), and its verdict shall be final and binding.

7.4 Alumni Data

7.4.1 All Entities shall maintain an updated and verifiable record of all members who have been formally granted Alumnus Status by the Entity. This record must be reviewed and updated once every 6 months in the official alumni tracker. Access to this tracker shall be restricted to the Entity Head and the LCPV People Management only.

7.4.2 The data of alumni needs to be reported and stored in the following tracker, under respective Entity Tabs: AIESEC in India ALUMNI \(Main\) which will be maintained by the MCVPM People Management, ESc and IMBSc.

7.4.3 The MCVPM BD shall be responsible for the record of all alumni data on National Level.

7.4.4 Alumni data must be handled in compliance with Data Protection and Privacy clause in SubDocument A_Brand Standardization

8. Provision of Letter of Experience

A letter of experience is a certificate of a member's AIESEC experience. It is not to be confused with a Letter of Recommendation.

8.1. A Member shall be eligible for a Letter of Experience from the Entity in any of the following cases:

8.1.1. At least 6 months of AIESEC experience in the Entity

8.1.2. Fulfillment of all steps mentioned in the Resignation process under Clause 6.2

8.1.3. In case a member has not completed the term, the member may be granted a Letter of Experience till the previously completed term.

8.2. The final decision, whether a member will get a letter of experience or not, should rest in the hands of the LCP (in consensus with the Executive Body) of that Local Chapter. The MCVP PM must be notified of the same, as reflected in the PM Audits.