- 3.4. After the delivery of a partner, the account manager must have a closing meeting and send a NPS form [aiesec.in/ClientSurvey]

4. National/Regional Conferences:

- 4.1. The AIESEC in India Member Committee holds the complete rights for any national conference sales.
- 4.2. AIESEC in India Member Committee holds the right to evolve national conference sales. Entities associated with AIESEC in India are allowed to sell national conference naming rights and/or agenda time upon the AIESEC in India's Member Committee Vice President's Business Development discretion only. All national conferences will have 3 partner slots by default. The scope for slots can be further increased or decreased based on special circumstances on the discretion of MCVP Business Development.
- 4.3. The slots would be allotted only if they adhere to the following conditions:
 - 4.3.1. The selling value of the slot CANNOT be less than ₹50,000 /slot. The final negotiated amount will depend upon the discretion of AIESEC in India's Member Committee Vice President's Business Development.
 - 4.3.2. The sponsorship and/or partnership cheque should be in the name of "AIESEC" and NOT in the name of the national conference hosting Entity. In case, any entity receives the payment, then it must be transferred to AIESEC in India Member Committee's account within 7 days of payment receipt.
 - 4.3.3. Any sponsorship initiated for National/Regional Conferences by the LC where the spaces in agenda after prior permission of MCVP BD are sold to any partner whosoever will have the following split in terms of the monetary sharing between the Entity and the Member Committee – 50:50
 - 4.3.4. Any logistical/travel/accommodation expenses incurred should be paid by the hosting LC and the expenses should be added to be paid under MC Receivables. MC would then split the expense with the Entity who raised the partnership.
- 4.4. AIESEC in India Member Committee holds the right to open sales for national conferences to Entity partner companies or organizations and the MC list companies. AIESEC in India is required to keep the Entity in loop and consider the first partnership as a MC-LC Cross Sales with a 50-50 split of the revenue from the partnership.

5.2. How to approach an National Partners List/ Core Partners List company:

5.2.1. Fill the permission form here, and notify the MCVP BD/PD about the same via email.

5.2.2 The above mentioned form shall not be used as a notification of a fixed meeting, which means that the first meeting shall be fixed only after obtaining a permission via modes of e-mail of the AIESEC in India MCVP BD/PD.

5.2.3. After a confirmation from the MCVP, the entity can approach the Core Partner/Partner list company for the purpose mentioned in the form.

5.2.4 The AIESEC in India MCVP BD/PD shall be kept in loop of all communications with the potential client/clients via modes of e-mails.

5.2.5. In a situation of a clash, wherein the MC has been/would like to/has already approached a particular company for any national product & a entity who has been/would like to approach the same company, the MC has an upper hand. The solution of such a situation would be proposed by negotiating with the entity. However the final decision rests with the MCVP BD/PD.

5.2.6 For the entities that receive the permission for partnering with Core partners/partners list companies or have any kind of association with them - Maximum by a week post the execution of the deliverables of the partnership, the entity needs to send a detailed report to the MCVP BD/PD and LSc explaining the details of partnership and current context with the National Partner List company.

5.3. If an Global Partner List/Core Partner List/National Partner List Company approaches an entity -

5.4.1 MCVP BD/PD needs to be notified within 48 hours of contact by the company and all the communication should be forwarded to the MCVP BD/PD within 48 hours as well.

5.4.2. The entity being contacted is required to loop in MCVP BD/PD and the respective MC member will take the partnership or will guide the entity through that partnership.

5.4. Violations -

5.4.1. In case of entities approaching any Global Partner List/Core Partner List/National Partner List company without the permission of the MCVP BD/PD:

5.4.1.1 An official warning will be given if the Partnership Principle is violated. If there is another violation made after that, it will be considered a breach and a sum of ₹5,000/- to be charged as a mandate fine for direct violation of the Partnership Principle.

5.4.1.2. A fine of up to 90% of the total amount raised would be charged from that entity

5.4.1.3 A second breach within 12 months of the first breach would attract a fine of ₹25,000/-

5.4.1.4. Any entity after the second breach in a entity term (referring to 4.5.1.3) would not be eligible to apply for any award for any portfolio that committed the second violation irrespective of any amount raised.

5.4.1.5. Companies mentioned under the Global Partners List/or on AIESEC international website (www.aiesec.org) cannot be approached by any of the entities at all for any type of collaboration. A sum of ₹25,000/- will be charged as a mandate fine for direct violation of this clause.

5.4.2. In case any of the Global Partner List/Core Partner List/National Partner List company/organization approaches any entity and the entity doesn't inform MC about the same within 48 hours via mail, then:

5.4.2.1 A sum of ₹5,000/- will be charged as a mandate fine for direct violation of the Partnership Principle.

5.4.2.2 The entity being contacted is not allowed to proceed with the partnership and needs to loop in MCVP BD/PD to take the partnership or any conversation regarding the same with the Global Partner List/Core Partner List/National Partner List company forward.

6. Royalty Model:

In instances where an LC possesses an iGTa/iGTe client seeking to engage interns in a different city, or represents a client with a presence in two or more cities, or seeks to elevate a client to the MC level, the following split model shall apply:

	MC India	Servicing LC	Contributing LC
Year 1	40%	40%	20%
Year 2	45%	40%	15%
Year 3 and onwards	50%	50%	0%

The royalty model shall not be applicable if the LC originating the client is concurrently servicing said client. In such cases, the split shall adhere to the standard NEP MC-LC split protocol.

7. National University Relations

7.1 The Member Committee shall enter into a memorandum of understanding or contract with the concerned university, explicitly outlining the deliverables and specifying the Local Committees and Startups that will be involved in providing services.

7.1.1 Communications related to outgoing Global Exchange programs shall be conducted through the designated Points of Contact within the Local Committees and Startups.

7.1.2 Incoming Global Exchange opportunities acquired shall be classified as NEPs and will be managed by the MC responsible.

7.1.3 Market segregation considerations shall be taken into account when formalizing the UR agreements.

7.2 Local Committees or Startups that have contributed to the signing of the University Relations agreement shall be duly recognized by the Member Committee for their contributions.
